Data Protection

Under the Data Protection Act (DPA) 2018, there are rules around how data is collected, stored and used.

The Herefordshire and Mid-Wales Group of the Hardy Plant Society falls under the heading of a not for profit organisation so is currently exempt from the need to register with the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner. However, the Group is encouraged to follow the guidelines as currently set out in the Act.

The personal data that members supply is stored as paper or computer records by the Group and used for administrative purposes only. No information will be disclosed to anyone outside the Group without permission. Each year, a list of names and postcodes will be sent to the main HPS Central Group for its records.

Locally, the list of members of the Herefordshire & Mid-Wales Group is maintained by the Membership Secretary. No information will be disclosed to anyone outside the Society. If anyone is concerned about the methods used to store this information, they should contact the Membership Secretary.

I have read the statement on Data Protection within the Herefordshire & Mid-Wales Group of the Hardy Plant Society and agree that my details may be stored by the Group with aspects being shared with HPS Central.
