Data Protection

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), there are rules around how data is collected, stored and used.

The Hardy Plant Society falls under the heading of a not for profit organisation so is currently exempt from the need to register with the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner. However, the Hardy Plant Society is encouraged to follow the guidelines as currently set out in the Act.

The personal data that members supply is stored as paper or computer records by the Group and used for administrative purposes only. No information will be disclosed to anyone outside the Group without permission.

Locally, the list of members of the Herefordshire & Mid-Wales Group is maintained by the Membership Secretary. If anyone is concerned about the methods used to store this information, they should contact the Membership Secretary. All information will not be disclosed to anyone outside the Society, apart from a list of members being submitted to Central HPS for their records on an annual basis. Central HPS also operates under the GDPR considerations.

I have read the statement on Data Protection within the Hereford & Mid-Wales Group of the Hardy Plant Society and agree that my details may be stored by the Group.
